Join us at iProspera! August 28

If the past 7 months have shown anything, it is the strength and resilience of our community and those dedicated to serving these individuals.

On Friday, August 28 at 6pm we will be hosting our annual event iProspera! This event raises funds in support of the programs needed by our community. This year, iProspera! will be virtual and will be free of charge for anyone that wants to attend. We'll have a 45 minute program sharing some of the incredible work Virginia Garcia has done this year.

We would like to invite each of you to join us. This is a great opportunity for each of you to not only attend, but also invite others to join you. Friends and family from all across the globe can take part in this important event. All they need is for you to invite them.

The event includes an auction and raffle that kick off on the 24th and runs through the 31st. Information will be sent out on how to participate so we encourage everyone to RSVP as soon as possible to ensure you do not miss any of the details.

Please do not hesitate to reach out if you have questions.

Outreach Updates

Starting in September Outreach will be providing community screening event on Tuesdays. As of this date, there are 3 dates in September scheduled for events in collaboration with Washington County and other community organizations.

We will provide details as they are finalized.
